

I.S.E.O. SUMMER SCHOOL 2023/ COVID-19 POLICIES

* In reference to the I.S.E.O. Summer School 2023, the I.S.E.O. Institute strictly applies all the rules and restrictions established by the Italian Ministry of Health to tackle the Covid-19 pandemic.

*Before attending the I.S.E.O. Summer School 2023, participants will be asked to test negative to a Covid-19 Pcr test, sending a proof of the results. Further details will be provided on May 2023.

*During the I.S.E.O. Summer School 2023, participants may be requested to test against Covid-19, to guarantee the safety of the whole group of students, speakers and staff. The I.S.E.O. Institute may organize participants testing (swabs) at its own expenses, with no additional costs for the attendees. Results and personal data, including sensitive data, will only be shared with health authorities, if requested.

*During the I.S.E.O. Summer School 2023, participants may be asked to self-isolate in case of positivity to Covid-19.

*In case of self-isolation or quarantine, participants of the I.S.E.O. Summer School 2023 will be charged for potential additional costs of accommodation, board and all potential additional costs exceeding what is included in the course fee. In this regard, the I.S.E.O. Institute suggests participants to consider subscribing an health insurance.

*In case participants are tested positive during the I.S.E.O. Summer School 2023, they won't be refunded for not taking part into academic and social activities.

*Rules and restrictions related to Covid-19, including those affecting international travellers, may be updated following the Italian Ministry of Health's most recent instructions and recommendations. I.S.E.O. Summer School participants will be promptly informed.
